

Marisa Brunetti, VMD

“My goal is to educate pet parents so well, they will no longer need Google. And to speak for those who can’t speak for themselves.”

Dr. Brunetti’s Work Personality

Leadership

Team Oriented  Self Starter

Communication

Private  Social

Work Approach

Quick  Steady

Creativity

Flexible  Precise

Education

- University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine, VMD, 2010
- Syracuse University, BS Public Relations and Biology, 2006
- AVCA Certification – Animal Chiropractic, 2017

Experience

- Thrive Vet Care, Texas Regional Medical Director
- Doylestown Animal Medical Center, Associate
- SPCA of Texas, Clinic Wellness Vet
- PSPCA, Philadelphia, High Volume/High Quality Surgeon

Areas of Interest

- General Practice (Small Animal)
- Chiropractic and integrative medicine
- Internal medicine – Strong in dermatology, ophthalmology, gastroenterology, and neurology

Noteworthy Gems

- Board of Directors, Animal Lifeline
- Educational journalist
- Interest in forensic veterinary medicine
- Interest in integrative medicine

Licensed

- Pennsylvania – BV 012540
- New Jersey - 29VI00767900

As an IndeVet, Dr. Brunetti will practice...

- Exams in general small animal practice
- Animal chiropractic